PREMIER COLORADO FBO VAIL VALLEY JET CENTER NOW OFFERING AVFUEL CONTRACT FUEL

EAGLE COUNTY, CO / January 15, 2013 / GENERAL AVIATION NEWS / Vail Valley Jet Center – the Avfuel-branded FBO delivering first-class service and breathtaking mountain views – is now offering Avfuel Contract Fuel. Avfuel Contract Fuel cardholders can now access cost-plus rates on jet fuel and take advantage of easy, hassle-free pre-authorization and billing processes while experiencing Vail Valley Jet Center’s luxurious environment and prime location.

“Vail Valley Jet Center is a premier facility delivering a number of desirable amenities,” said Marci Ammerman, Avfuel Vice President, Marketing. “The addition of Avfuel Contract Fuel to the existing lineup of services and solutions makes air travel more economical and convenient without sacrificing any of the niceties or comforts that only a premium FBO can offer.”

With Avfuel Contract Fuel at Vail Valley Jet Center customers can take advantage of:

- Cost-plus rates on jet fuel
- Fast and convenient pre-authorizations
- Easy online account management
- Centralized billing

In addition to adding Avfuel Contract Fuel to its offerings, Vail Valley Jet Center will celebrate the FBO’s 15th anniversary with Triple AVTRIP Points on January 20 and Double AVTRIP Points January 21-27.

Vail Valley Jet Center provides easy access to Colorado’s most popular ski areas as well as a number of amenities including transportation, catering, rental cars, conference rooms, crew showers, an entertainment room and complimentary mountain bikes and snow shoes – all in a warm, welcoming atmosphere. The FBO is routinely recognized as one of the top independent FBOs in the United States in industry surveys. For more information, visit www.vvjc.com.
